

1 atfirst

1.1 envy

at the party there weren't that many people; the young man could see what mattered; not himself he could tell you that much looking for softer mattresses until he came about and she had the eyes of his memory the lies of his own imagination bliss looked ever so distant there was a table and six or seven chairs; just enough it wasn't raining yet but you could feel it coming with sparks and ozone holes drifting above; choosing the signs to follow seemed easy at first but then again envy was a twisted word hair was messy and the grapes tasted good enough; his pulse ran deep, beneath randomness and artesian caves where the fish swim

1.2 aftermath

when they arrived at his parents house the door was locked so he had to force it ever so gently; and yet it cracked it was cold outside afterall there was no going back after she kissed him he couldn't tell who had made the first move thinking comes later when you wish for the woman of your dreams and nightmares lose their meaning the first word he could utter was fuck; all the hair was soft even the close shaven one was golden and sweet; she slept with it and her underwear was near enough so as to forget the fault because doors shouldn't crack, they should swivel and turn but he was in a rush to see how far life should go in those moments decisions aren't what they seem they crack ever so gently

1.3 cars

the waters are shallow don't you know you can't fly although the feeling only shows when loneliness seems deeper than a night without.- the insects stop buzzing our ears; ache the pools are not vast enough to get lost in your eyes, deeper than I could imagine still call at 3am - a dead phone all we ever needed was a car ride past midnight; when lights blur and rain could choose its own direction just another word for speed her quick witted smile could tame the wildest eyebrows her beauty needs motion like delicate clocks I could see her face only by glimpsing across our rift of emptiness I wish I could promise the waters are as shallow as they sound but here they refract my loneliness in green grey shapes of tomorrow

The car is old the streets are filled untill we get to the place where streams lullaby us to sleep and where nothing matters really in the end peace was what we were striving for away from passion and envy and where words only mean what they meant

2 absence

2.1 pills

Now you're laying asleep, content with tamed eyes, absent from me sheltered from me they caressed your Hair slipped the pill under your tongue and whispered soft "it's okay's" here the windows are blurry with rain glossing out construction cranes -refracting the dying lights

The chairs were almost comfortable and within their mutual angle you only had to roll your eyes to spray a distant stare We used to have warm ashtrays hot coffee, cold feet; torn out socks Scrambled eggs and "fuck you weddings"
and whispered their soft it's okay's

You should wake up and forget but you slept remembering they wear white coats and indulgent airs I will wear guilt and satisfaction when you woke up and remembered I went for a long walk and you never came?

2.2 morning in the morning they found a naked young man yelling atop its breath "i didnt want to i swear i swear" what are you rambling about - said the older man

"does it matter, i swear I didn't, want to", then why did you; tym ? precisely what I'm trying to

can we talk at least, but less well yes but i cant promise I won't yell it into your ear until it bursts, a young man is just trying to release the older waters which are still stuck experience tells me & one can see through your blinded logical scaffolding's I guess I just wish I knew why you are still looking for meaning where there is clearly none but hear this:
at the very least it will be inside & you look tired of outdoors in the night it was still the same old story untill an even older man asked the even younger man "why are you naked in the streets old sport" I'm just looking for a mirror to spit into and what do I look like says you not a mirror I can tell you that much and thus history repeated itself but wherelse am I supposed to look, - we used to drive into sunsets holding hands and now the sun rises on me but its lonely I prefered to to shine with her why aren't you with her then but old man why don't you get it is precisely what I'm trying to figure out I still cry to marc ribot's guitar you see? why can't you? you should be able to tell one day youll know young man, well i know one thing I know itll be too late

2.3 evening evenings hit the hardest when tym forgets at what time the same old sun sets. it slips by, eclipsed by the moon's signs He just waits for a shadow a silhouette of himself which is less shallow you were there when it mattered something must have shattered actions are words when the walls close in what else was tym left with then words words and words hinges don't have to hurt when you fold your clothes; & the day was well spent when it mattered I was chasing instead of waiting, imitating – the tail never caught on to the trick and now tym forgets the names of trees

3 also

3.1 here

here we can see; the winds carry nothing into grey bliss pale blue is not the color we had chosen but it is ours before we can hear our cries the post man delivers the cats get lost in alleyways as soon as doors open they come back to lick their paws gently because whoever was in a rush was gravely mistaken the winds are hollow we had chosen others and;

they carry nothing but empty smiles of old varnish, where are the colors are they too old to be told? pale blue wasn't supposed to be the one... at least it is cozy up there when we can see the skies drifting after we can see the limits the employees punch in with weary eyes discontent of their own desired cycles and when they close doors they don't double check the locks because who would care if one were to disappear vanishing with hope

3.2 guilt

as the postman came back guilty of forgetting the sweetest package an old man was looking for photographed operands; right behind closed curtains he should have looked under the couch where our dreams used to live they haven't died they simply chose new names such as lotion cream and neons; flashing and the sweetest apathy brings it back whatever it was

we have to look for them they hide well beneath guilt they haven't died they chose incense and flowers we chose vodka and unskimmed milk as the postman licked his paws I lectured him on hygiene national geographic would have done it better for it is objective the new names sometimes seem rather obtuse or strange do not be alarmed by that fact young man one day yellow will be blue purple will be pink and an old order will be restored; so to speak

3.3 brunch

he had a passionate love and hate relationship with some kinds of avocados as If it were hard to disentangle the vegan ethics & the many fruitful deaths from them? whoever they were brunches reeked of untainted privilege, when you pay for the fact you can eat before you are;
being actually fully awoke on a related note he dutifully (or so he thought?) preferred cold left over coffees and desk computations pre-urinal conversations; post coital refreshed purity in all its musky forms shapes and scents where else what else could you find in the internet days such man is but a relay and where else was he supposed to look for the misty rains of a better year but it has always been that way they yelled his eyes could say no more than yes but even then : we had hope, in the trees in the birds in the sun glows now dissipated in the midst of blue fluocompact lights how should one choose his own lightbulb

4 far

4.1 how so relativity is a strange word when far feels very much alive some people spend lives measuring osculating; spending thrift change to get neat answers like 6 foot three and barry is an asshole but really who knows maybe he was a nice guy in the end we know dwelling on it doesn't do because quite simply being sometimes is not enough I still crave for those answers, I could stop if the cat would stop getting inside but it always finds a crack a crevisse strangers who are without a room have a past and will always curl inwards searching for true memories unfucked with, the presence of the real behind the blossoms of gardens planted for the sake of time well spent

now tell me
do you like my new haircut I told the barber to remind me of me I think he did a swell job untill someone asked me how was my acting career doing, well screw you and your pictures your well adjusted routines is what I told the chump now I'm left with bitterness of my own making and two birds they won't stop shitting just just besides the cage now can god make a good metaphor of that because I'm tired and it was a nice couch the winds are stronger than I thought 4.2 enough as tym crossed the street he saw two cars of different shades pass by him he waltzed and gave a hard stare at the cat peering over closed curtains he couldn't choose which one

so he strolled passed to find some shade in the orchard where knowledge at least is not frowned upon he found a place where windows exist, however inside is still different outside is colder and gray inside is cozy and pale red you might catch a glimpse but for that you need to choose your waking hours

the difference is slim it might be a slight wind draught or the echo of a lover with broken arms are they still useful? why yes of course!

4.3 waiting pale blue wasn't supposed to be our color; in the great beauty of it all I still catch it the myself looking at ceilings looking for company someday she slept in like a tempest left no room for apathy which used to be sweet & so it gave way to restlessness where writing is for publishers and tides only come in when the horoscopes tell them so tym never travelled enough he preferred the confines of his own mind – peeking for lightness and as was foretold he found choosing your prison is simply a matter of semantics; rhetorically speaking

5 nicotine

5.1 the last one the last one can be hard to digest you will play with it and ignore the rest a little, tym but always let time work & remember why you came here you had reasons and objectives

can you at least hum, tell me what they were because to me it felt quite simply like licking my paws and strolling through a different parallax; for it be to leveled well first of all tym you need to stop hiding behind all those words they will bite – and hurt you back those games are not meant to be played by the score otherwise you will crack and the cats will come back

5.2 uncertainty

but now tell me how long should I wait as long as it takes they say but that just adds to the smell of deja vu, which is good it also hurts though it will hurt as long as you don't understand the point, and keep looking for the lines, the sharp ones the diagonals - ; they go too deep for your young heart you should, stick to parallel parking and learn it good, hear me out; unlearn the smoke and the release in cycles for tomorrow is just the same what should you claim for it to be different? - now don't make me laugh, my back still hurts

5.3 sleep tym went to his bed and looked for sleep where there is none as was foretold, but now think why should it be there when you look for the absence - he opened a book; and threw it out then another one and the process went on turning over maybe towards some parallax of lost years which; was fidgeting with his memory when eyelids become the last frontier of beauty, rolling above restfulness and so he remembered tom's advice you need to stop fidgeting tym it won't help no one sit still and un-arch your back focus on some task otherwise you know well; in old age it will come back to haunt you your posture I mean, lying down while the world wakes can be often a cowardly act

6 moving

6.1 somewhere sieves are the hardest to knit you need patience and wit some of the musics looses magic when frontiers define the tragic blank verse is for cowards free is even worse, so shouted the post modern man intrinsic to the goal are the river's shores you need synthetic clothings canoes and devices, the wind won't push you only if you let it fall, only then will space fill the fields acting on a distance is not how they work they're simply there, osculating the waves when tym reached for another book, he opened it at random, or so he tried signs and patterns were still there for the first line told him of his own mistakes do not try to let it go to waste the land will not let signs unused in the shadow of the crane at each waking hour we can see each other getting built from small parts, bits at a time some cities are bigger than others getting lost is an art hard to practice you need highways and tall buildings tym preferred the comfort of knowing exactly and precisely the wrong things 6.2 horizon

here the winds are clear the flatness conjures something else which cannot be fathomed; the soft ripple of the stems caress the horizons fuzzyness is hard to define yet you can feel it in empty mornings we flash and yearn yet are bored like Henry tym was lost between gripes yet looked onwards towards fields of yellow tranquil hills do not go off chasing it it will only leave you panting tym needs to walk, resilience hard stares and empty air is where you'll find peace was said before sometimes 6.3 distance

the coffee was cold and so was the trail of some lost details; hidden perhaps, beneath all the rest which was laid bare to see with binoculars for eyes weren't enough; they were hard angles and soft touches to find that night the young man glimpsed at what was left of his well sketched future she was dancing and didn't care he was drinking for the courage it didn't come; why would it all the people were celebrating reasons and meanings, while tym rested his elbows, concentrating

7 choices

7.1 beginnings do not go off chasing finding is easier when you let it waltz and dance at a distance moreover the touch is softer to those who, unlike tym, can wait to be blessed and are able to see the fuzzy winds piercing through some of the deeper analogies they cannot be predicted and even if they could why would they come behind the bridge next to its shadow where the pebbles are dirty but the waters still flow, underanged you can cast one if you feel like it the faster the better probably – let them spin, the axis is your choice tym felt a chore out of being amongst so many rocks, where should he sit?

7.2 textures

this day the air is porous and I can feel the sun sliding down across the reaches of your skin I've never known why we were looking across the same pale landscapes;
but I couldn't reach your hand and chain our memories to anchors of distant bliss the ice cream cone reflected your yesterdays -; joy, untamed yet in your eyes I let the clouds gently slide caressing what was left of my palms

you were there, behind the tree I could not walk in the same tracks so I drifted, downwards to the same old circles of me where sense ends and new beginnings were there to find 7.3 magic across the street from the tree is where you'll find it the magic; splitting ever - in corals and roots why are you still looking so far when what is harboured is also always within reach you can let it fall or try to grasp at the stems catch you breath however going fast makes no distinction in the great beauty of it all speed is simply one of those details stopping has many synonyms like loving for an instant tym please don't go off running like that it is here; all around you tom why the hell do you think this is precisely why I keep going in circles of restlessness

8 night

8.1 the street sitting on brick made stairs the street was empty apart from a couple parked cars and the ruffle in the leaves while lets not forget the light buzzing from high ways lampposts could hide the sky teeming up with refreshed trees tym wondered where they all went however it didn't matter his location was enough and well found amongst other urbanites looking for some peace, elsewhere; maybe of fresh quiet in the humid air yesterday it was

8.2 trees

they split everso and try to reach, higher than where we led them trees are the balance, arborescence we were looking for before growing up now they simply hang, content of their own rustlin in the wind tym stretched his legs laid back in the chair, admiring there was finally no point in moving the leaves were doing it for him epiphanies are too fast he needs slow pulses of dancing around his mind, a haircut maybe but not today, he prefers the rustle and the breeze that precedes it something one cannot predict 8.3 wind it can be hard to adjust to the speed at which it travels choosing an angle to deflect the hard winds of plains and mountains they travel without warning so he sat in diagonals to it & and he never saw the instinct to move, restlessness is in the small moments where why can he not let it go let it be it needs to be bottled first and filtered, like sparkly springs he flirts with apathy once again only it has no movement its water is murky speed is essential, eventhough we all know it to be relative 9 after

9.1 endings

when axioms fall, let them sit tyn open them up in new spheres where beginnings and endings stop in the wonder apathy needs room to grow
- & blossom into new presents spaces are chained to the times where life meant more than the words they tend to get lost in the details into the featherly rustle which can wait it will try to escape the futures of yesterday are long gone and remember them after they pass the links are soft to those who have the touch, delicate and effervescent
